YOUR ROI?

We advocate identifying what you will bring back to your organization as payback for their investment in sending you. Take time to review the session descriptions and match them to your company's knowledge requirements. Don't assume your manager will automatically make the connections between conference programming and benefits to the business. Be sure to clearly articulate what the company stands to gain. This will include practical guidance, practices, roadmap, tools and innovations to help improve your value to your customer.

Want to maximize the Value Summit's impact? Send professionals covering ALL of the "Who Should Attend? Roles outlined above. Value success is a team sport – with everyone on it equally informed, educated and motivated.

WHAT'S NEW ABOUT VALUE?

VSR Mini-Course

(For Summit Registrants)

Taught by world-renowned value experts and VSR Council Founding Members. Given from 8:30am to 12:30 on 29-February, the first morning of our Summit. This highly interactive VSR Mini-Course will give you compelling insights extracted from five of The Value Academy (TVA) courses to be launched in spring, 2016.

Our Mini-Course will be facilitated by globally recognized value leaders such as Shimon Abouzaglo, Jack Keen, Stephen Timme and Tim Creasey. Check out their LINKEDIN profiles.

During this Mini-Course you'll get key insights extracted from:

COURSE 1 The New Digital View of Value:

Learn what's new about articulating and delivering value in today's digital world, and how this has obsoleted value approaches to date.

COURSE 2 Dramatizing Value via Rapid Value Flow Mapping: See how to visually show how value is created of personal interest to ALL stakeholders. (No drawing talent required!)

COURSE 3 Driving Digital Era Value via the Actionable Business Case: Understand new and better ways of performing value discovery and presenting investment justifications, which are now mandatory for digital-savvy stakeholders.

COURSE 4 Leveraging Value-based Change Management: Understand the new and critical integration points between Change Management and Value Realization for assuring that people-driven benefits (typically 80% of all benefits) do occur.

COURSE 5 Leader's Role in Value Success:

Understand the crucial role of sales, consulting and solution implementation leaders for actively managing and motivating teams to maximize value achievement.
